

Birds of Honduras-I

Description

This first workshop will focus on the generalities of the birds of Honduras such as:

Their biology, families, ecosystems, distribution, identification, amongst other relevant content. On top of teaching generalities about birds Robert will share his ample knowledge and experience of being a Naturalist Guide and how to apply the subject matter with techniques in the field.

Schedule

March 5 & 6, 12 & 13

March 5-Saturday- 8am (Welcome) to 4pm.

March 6-Sunday-7am to 3pm.

March 12-Saturday-Begins: 8am to 4pm.

March 13-Sunday-Begins: 7am to 3pm.

Prerequisites-have binoculars, Minimum age-10 years

Suggested-Have a copy of "Guía de las Aves de Honduras"

Maximum # of participants 20 people

Cost-Lps. 3,000pp.

Includes: Registration fee, diploma, lunch and snack (Saturday), breakfast and lunch (Sunday), entry fee to Emerald Valley, copy of the Checklist to the Birds of Emerald Valley.

Emerald Valley has a camping area and firepit. Cost to camp is Lps. 200/person/night. Bring your own camping gear.

Contact: Robert for details on deposits. rgallardo32@gmail.com

Note: Guarantee your spot by paying in advance.